Goals Emphasize Communication and Sharing Letter from State President Patricia DeWitt

At an Executive Committee meeting before the Summer Leadership/Membership gathering in Warner Robins, I laid out some goals for the year and received approval. I will be reporting on progress on these throughout the year, starting at the Fall Board and Mini-Conference October 24.

Establish a Branch Without Borders for Georgia. There are many places in the state where a traditional branch would not be viable, but women working for equity need support and they in turn can help support our state public policy priorities.

Call on branches to implement specific projects to address our Public Policy Priorities: STEM education for girls, Pay Equity, and Health Care for Women.

Collect reports of all branch mission-oriented activities.

Build up the Student Advisory Council.

Continue our partnership with the Siegel Institute with a joint Phenomenal Women Conference April 16, 2009. The theme is "Women Leading in Challenging Times".

Continue to develop electronic communication between state members and board.

Establish a corps of AAUW-GA representatives to represent us within several state groups/agencies of interest to us.

Awareness of internet resources for AAUW was a highlight of the Summer Membership/Leadership meeting in Warner Robins July 25. Judging by the results of the evaluation sessions on the National Convention, Using State and National Websites, Resources for Officers, and Public Policy were all very interesting. Only a few stayed on to attend the session on building your own website, but Ann Mackay, our state webmaster, is willing to help anyone who is interested.

Communication, using the electronic tools available as well as other means, was a major emphasis of attendees' open-ended comments. Many attendees commented that they would use the state and national websites more and would present programs on them to their branch membership. When asked what the state should do for branches (especially important since we are no longer required to have a state structure), attendees mentioned encouraging the branches to take on more mission-oriented projects, facilitating communication among branches, state officers staying in touch with branch counterparts, and sharing "best practices". Several attendees asked for more training in use of technology.

These comments show that your president and board are on track with our goals, since the goals cover most of the points made in the comments. We need to emphasize communication and sharing. For that, we will need the help of every branch.

Several branches have in fact submitted reports for this edition of the Cherokee Rose. You can also submit posts for the website at any time. We can enrich the website, which is after all based on a blog structure, with ongoing reports from branches undertaking projects that further the Mission. A blog format encourages relatively brief and pithy reports, but there is really no limit on length. You don't have to wait until an event is over before reporting on it. You can and should invite members of other branches to your events.

Please send your reports, progress reports as well as final summaries, invitations to events, and other notes to one of the following:

- patdewitt@shorter.edu
- ann.mackay@gmail.com
- diana.witt@comcast.net

In their spring report, Ann Mackay and the Cyber Improvement Committee proposed another exciting format for communication: web conferencing. Web conferencing is used frequently today in business, education, and other organizations for getting people together virtually and for training. All you need is a relatively fast Internet connection and a microphone; an inexpensive web camera would be a bonus. It is also very valuable for the computer training suggested at Summer Leadership. We will be considering this at the Fall Board meeting.

2009 National Conference of College Women Student Leaders

It was such a great pleasure to have AAUW GA, and Cobb County and Milledgeville Branches combine support to send Rachel Zudekoff, a student at Georgia College and State University, to the 2009 National Conference of College Women Student Leaders held on the campus of the University of Maryland in June. She attended the state convention in April along with students from Agnes Scott College, Dalton College, and Savannah College of Art and Design (SCAD). The students from Agnes Scott College and Savannah College of Art and Design were sponsored with Atlanta's Branch Bookfair funds. Here are some of their comments about the conference:

Rachel Zudekoff, Senior, Georgia College and State University, Milledgeville, GA: "Every person that I met had a unique story and personality that involved me in some way. The highlights of the conference for me were the Women of Distinction and the workshops. One of the honored women, Diane Rehm, reminded me that throughout my life I will hear the word "NO!", but I need to find my own strength and motivations to pursue my dreams."

Jordon Castell, Junior, Agnes Scott College, Decatur, GA" I was truly inspired by my engagement with speakers and students. Everyone became a teacher and provided me with wisdom that will follow me for the rest of my life."

Onyinye Edeh, Junior Agnes Scott College, Decatur, GA "First , and most importantly, this conference was for women! It was truly refreshing to sit in an auditorium surrounded by strong, passionate, and intellectual women who all shared a common goal of improving opportunities for all women in all areas of life. "

Jasmine Brandon, SCD, Atlanta, GA "The conference will forever impact my life. I've learned so much , not just about the community and women's rights, but about myself, and this is the biggest gift that any conference can give to a person. I will continue to keep my head high, to never give up, to spread the word around about AAUW and its great offerings, and to teach my kids to strive for big goals and to never give up."

These young leaders are people who will continue to help AAUW of Georgia with our issues and mission. For all branches, it would be so positive when planning your budget for 2009-10 that you put some of your funds to send a student to the conference. If we share the cost which is about $700.00 per person which includes registration, and transportation, we could perhaps send another student or two in 2010.

The conference is hosted by the AAUW Leadership and Training Institute and NASPA Center for Scholarship, Research, and Professional Development for Women. Since its inception in 1985, the NCCWSL conference has provided a platform to help thousands of college and university women develop leadership skills, network, with other students leaders, and interact with women who hold leadership position.

We hope to continue our student leadership program in Georgia. By sending students to the conference, the college will see that we truly believe in supporting women for a life-time! Please put some money in the branch budget to support the student conference.

Seated on the bench are Jasmine Brandon, SCAD; Rachel Zudekoff, Georgia College and State University; Jordan Casteel, Agnes Scott College. In the back is Onyinye Edeh, Agnes Scott College

Carolyn Garfein advises states and branches to sign and return the new AAUW Affiliate Agreement by October 31, 2009

Dear Colleagues:

Over the last year, we have worked hard together to restructure AAUW to be the nationwide 21st-century organization we need to maximize our effectiveness in breaking through barriers for women and girls. A central element of the restructure has involved establishing AAUW as a non-profit corporation qualifying as tax exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and as what the IRS designates a "complex" tax-exempt organization structure. This structure includes a both a dominant 501(c)(3) entity (AAUW) and a small 501(c)(4) entity (AAUW Action Fund) that houses our Lobby Corps and get-out-the-vote activities. An important aspect of this restructure is that since AAUW's voting membership is now housed in AAUW (the charitable entity), our national membership dues are now tax deductible on members' personal federal tax returns.

New Affiliate Agreement. To comply with IRS requirements, all branch and state organizations "affiliated" with AAUW must sign a new AAUW Affiliate Agreement and return the signed agreement to AAUW by October 31, 2009. Your state/branch will receive the new Affiliate Agreement in the Member Starter Kit. Even though branches and states previously signed affiliate agreements, the IRS requires that we now secure affirmation by all states and branches of their affiliation with our restructured AAUW charitable membership organization.

New AAUW Group Tax Exemption. By signing this new affiliate agreement, branches and states that are state tax exempt under IRS Code 501(c)(4) also affirm intent to be included in AAUW's new group tax exemption. (The only exception is if, for some reason, the organization elects to be excluded from the AAUW group tax exemption and so indicates by notation in section V. D. of the agreement—this is not advisable—AND they still need to sign the agreement in order to affirm affiliation with AAUW.)

Please remember, the new Affiliate Agreement will be provided to you to facilitate your compliance with requirements of the IRS. Details about the process, a summary of the Affiliate Agreement contents, and an FAQ are posted on the AAUW website. Thank you for your immediate attention to this important matter.

Sincerely,
Carolyn Garfein, President

ATLANTA BRANCH-- NEW DIRECTIONS

--By Mary Lynn Merkle, Co-president

Equality and justice begin with acknowledging and respecting those who are "different." Because the Atlanta population is very diverse and because minority groups are not always understood, respected, or even welcomed, we have added a new Diversity Committee this year. The Co-chairs, Bea Meyer and Marie Bonheur-Gulotta, will keep branch members centered in learning more about minority populations, considering how we might encourage more diversity within our branch, and how we might respect and celebrate the minorities in our Atlanta community. The Board of Directors has given this committee a substantial budget, and we are excited about our possibilities for effecting change.

COBB COUNTY BRANCH — CELEBRATES 30th ANNIVERSARY

Cobb County AAUW celebrated their 30th Anniversary March 7th. The event was held at Marietta Country Club in Kennesaw with the program visiting the history of the branch through slides and scrapbook albums. Truly an uplifting event - with two charter members in attendance, as well as many members and guests.

COLUMBUS BRANCH HOSTS KICK-OFF RECEPTION

—by Nemia Chai, Program VP

The Columbus Branch of AAUW began its 2009 calendar with a kick-off reception September 1, 2009 in the Center for International Education on the main Columbus State University campus. Distinguished guests included CSU President, Dr. Tim Mescon; Ms. Beth Homes, Fort Benning Dependent Schools Education Support; Muscogee County Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Susan Andrews; and Muscogee County School Board members Mr. James Walker, Vice Chair; and Ms. Naomi Buckner.

Program Vice President Nemia Chai welcomed the attendees and Membership Vice President Erma Banks outlined the scholarship program the branch sponsors at Columbus State University. Branch President Marie Bruner introduced Dr. Beth Farokhi, guest speaker and long-time AAUW leader, who outlined her focus as a candidate for the State Superintendent of Schools.

MACON BRANCH HOLDS HONOR DINNER

—by Joyce Hudson, Treasurer

Macon Branch held the annual Honors Dinner in May presenting scholarships and remembering two former members. Presented to a non-traditional student of one of the three four-year degree colleges in Macon alternating between Macon State College, Mercer University and Wesleyan College, the $1,000 scholarship was awarded to Donna Savage of Macon State College. Silver tray presentation was made to two former members who were great leaders. Added to the other outstanding women's names engraved on the tray are Helen Gamble and Gwyneth Lammon. Annual recognition is given to a member who made outstanding contribution to the Branch. The award recipient helps select the member to be recognized the next year. \.

ROME BRANCH— YEAR OF GEAR,

—by Donna Davin

In the Summer of 2008 members of the Rome Branch presented MoneySmart workshops; six sessions that were open to the public. This year we are working with Janice Morrissey of GEAR (Grassroots Empowerment Alliance of Rome) to try to get a defined group (high-school, low-income adults, etc.) to present the course to this summer or fall. Also this year, Rome Branch members participated in a political candidate forum co-sponsored by the Branch and The Rome/Floyd County Parks and Recreation Department. For our December meeting, we held our annual Christmas Brunch and Silent Auction. Proceeds from the auction went to The AAUW Education Fund.

VALDOSTA BRANCH

—By Martha A. Leake, President

The Valdosta Branch has already had an active start in fulfilling its mission to the community. On September 12, the branch invited local party chairpersons to give members insight into the municipal elections this November. Jerome Tucker, head of the Lowndes County Democratic Party, spoke about those issues in this mainly non-partisan election. Meanwhile, a committee headed by Emily Rogers planned a Political Forum for September 15. The Forum has a long tradition in Valdosta, started by member and educator, Dr. JoAnn Hartman, and dedicated to the memory of member Virginia Branan, who helped Dr. Hartman for several years. Emily's hard work and the efforts of a whole host of volunteers, organized by Martha Leake, and the participation of nearly all the candidates in the area facing opposition, made this event a success. From 7:00 to 9:15, members of the public had a chance to hear the opening statements, closing statements, and answers to their questions from each candidate on the panels on stage. Over 100 persons attended, along with media from newspaper, Valdosta Daily Times, and TV. The event will be rebroadcast on VSU TV in October. Over three articles appeared in the Times referring to the Political Forum (see attached). The General Municipal Election will occur on November 3; thanks to AAUW Political Forum, the Lowndes County community now knows much more about their candidates—and their candidates now know more about the issues concerning their constituents.

Valdosta's membership meeting will be a casual get together at the home of former AAUW president and current state board member, Laverne Lewis Gaskins. Laverne is an attorney for the VSU campus, active in the community, and is able to keep our branch up to date with state activities.

In November, Valdosta members will focus on the mission to improve STEM education among its members and youngsters. Dr. Leslie Jones, a Biologist, will give members a tour of exhibits newly arrived from the western US, housed in the beautiful Bailey Science Center. On this day, AAUW members are urged to bring their daughters (and sons). This view into the college science scene should be of great interest to the youngsters in the community.

December's activities are directed toward an international focus, and another long standing tradition, as we celebrate the holidays with the international students. Valdosta State University's some 200 international students are invited for a holiday brunch on December 5, and then they will educate us on how the holidays are celebrated in their part of the world.

The Valdosta Branch meetings in 2010 will begin with a focus on finances, tying in to the WAGE project. A local financial planner will help to educate us on how to survive in this challenging economy; of course, equal pay for equal work is of great interest to us.

WARNER ROBINS BRANCH

Annual Book Sale is November 12-14.

The branch continues the GRITS (Girls Read It Together In School) program through October 2009. The fifth grade girls at Shirley Hills Elementary School will be reading the Bridge to Terabithia during the five week GRITS program. The first session on September 29 included distributing t-shirts, the novels, serving refreshments, outlining the book and reading aloud. Pictured here is the back of the GRITS t-Shirt.

The October program will be held in the second floor meeting room at Lowe Toyota, 375 S. Houston Lake Road. This is a change in location from the Lions Clubhouse. Please park on the far north side of their property (toward Watson) and enter at the north side entrance. Take the stairs or walk through to the elevator.

Heather Gilbert, Senior Community Manager, American Cancer Society, Macon Chapter will be the speaker. She will give us information about the cancer burden in Houston County as well as explain the services available for patients and families.

LEADERSHIP

Leadership is much more an art, a belief, a condition of the heart, than a set of things to do. The visible signs of artful leadership are expressed, ultimately, in its practice.

FY10 Membership Dues
Remain at $49
—$46.00 is Tax Deductable!

AAUW National dues for both branch members and members-at-large (MALs) for FY 2010 remain at $49. This was approved by the AAUW Board of Directors at their October 2008 meeting. (See note below.)*

Beginning April 1, 2009, of the $49 AAUW national individual member dues, $46 became tax deductible, payable to "AAUW," our 501(c)(3) charitable organization; $3 goes to support your AAUW Lobby Corps and election-related activities and are not tax deductible. However, you should still pay the dues in one payment, to "AAUW," for the full $49 amount. Student Affiliate dues will continue to be $17, $16 of which is tax deductible for the same reason.

Congratulations to Carolyn Garfein of the North Fulton Branch. All Georgia AAUW members celebrate Carolyn's recent election to Association President.

The AAUW Website Is Undergoing Changes

—by Ashley Carr, Director of Marketing and Communications AAUW

As AAUW has undergone organizational changes, we are also redesigning the AAUW website to serve you better. The redesigned site will be completed in November 2009.

As part of the process, over the weekend AAUW will be transitioning to an interim site — a streamlined version of the current AAUW website. In order to update and streamline the site's content, many pages have been moved, changed, or temporarily removed. If a page or content you or other AAUW members are seeking is not currently available on the interim site, please contact webmaster@aauw.org.

Thank you for your patience during this process as we work to improve the site.

GA AAUW GOALS 2009-2010

—by Pat Dewitt,
GA AAUW President

I have two goals for this year, one with several of sub-goals:

1. See that the bylaws are examined with a view to optimize our support of the AAUW mission.
2. Increase AAUW of GA's influence at the state level.
 - a. Promote and coordinate branch public policy efforts.
 - b. Continue and expand our collaborations and partnerships, such as the Siegel Institute.
 - c. Make sure AAUW participates in state government advisory activities.
 - d. Establish an online branch in Georgia.

From the North (Atlanta)

Go south on I-75, through Forsyth. Past Forsyth, at the Visitor's Center, bear right onto I-475 South. The second exit is #9, Zebulon Road. (There are signs indicating that this is the Wesleyan College exit.) Exit and turn left onto Zebulon Road. You will go several miles and through three traffic lights at Zebulon Road, which turns residential once you have gone past the immediate area of the interstate. Zebulon Road ends at Forsyth Road. Turn right and, within a mile, the college will be on the right.

From the West (Columbus)

Coming in on US 80 or Ga. Hwy. 22, get on I-475 North and go to Exit #9, Zebulon Road. (There are signs indicating that this is the Wesleyan College exit.) Exit and turn right onto Zebulon Road. You will go several miles and through three traffic lights at Zebulon Road, which turns residential once you have gone past the immediate area of the interstate. Zebulon Road ends at Forsyth Road. Turn right and, within a mile, the college will be on the right.

From the South (Valdosta/Perry)

Go north on I-75. Before you get into Macon, bear left onto I-475, the Macon Bypass. Go to Exit #9, Zebulon Road. (There are signs indicating that this is the Wesleyan College exit.) Exit and turn right onto Zebulon Road. You will go several miles and through three traffic lights at Zebulon Road, which turns residential once you have gone past the immediate area of the interstate. Zebulon Road ends at Forsyth Road. Turn right and, within a mile, the college will be on the right.

From the East (Savannah/Dublin)

Take I-16 West until it ends at I-75. Stay to the right and merge onto I-75 North. On I-75, you will have a sense that you are skirting the city, which is to your left. Go to the second exit, Exit #169, Arkwright Road. Exit, turn left, and go straight at the light across Riverside Drive. At the next light, turn right onto Northside Drive. Go straight through the light at Forest Hill Road. (The change from business to residential is rather abrupt once you have crossed Forest Hill Road.) At the caution light, turn left onto Wesleyan Drive. When Wesleyan Drive intersects Rivoli Drive, it jogs left and then immediately right, crosses the railroad tracks, and ends at Forsyth Road, at the campus. Turn left onto Forsyth Road and right into the campus. (From Milledgeville or Gray, you will turn right onto I-16/I-75 North from Gray Highway as you are coming into Macon.)
